

2009 - 2010
CBC Writing Competition
CBC Entry
Category: Poetry
Author: Kelly Sorenson

You and Your Waylon Jennings

You and your Waylon Jennings, crooning from your Toyota factory standard speakers.
Is that how you hear him?
Or are you there,
inside the studio?
The crumbling black of the padded walls for better acoustics, not the hysterics you must be in.
Watching it happen, laying down the master tracks you love so dearly. No static here, or aged fidelity.